

Nashville News

THE BLACK BOOK PROJECT

The Black Project is a 501 (c)3 non-profit organization that aims to make cultural representation in children's literature a priority, one book at a time!

Did you know only 13% of children's books published showcase Black characters?

The Black Book Project's goal is to collect 10,000 books showcasing Black characters by the end of February 2025 for underserved children in Nashville.

We can reach our goal with your help!

Scan this QR Code to donate from our Amazon Wishlist!

Scan this QR Code to donate!

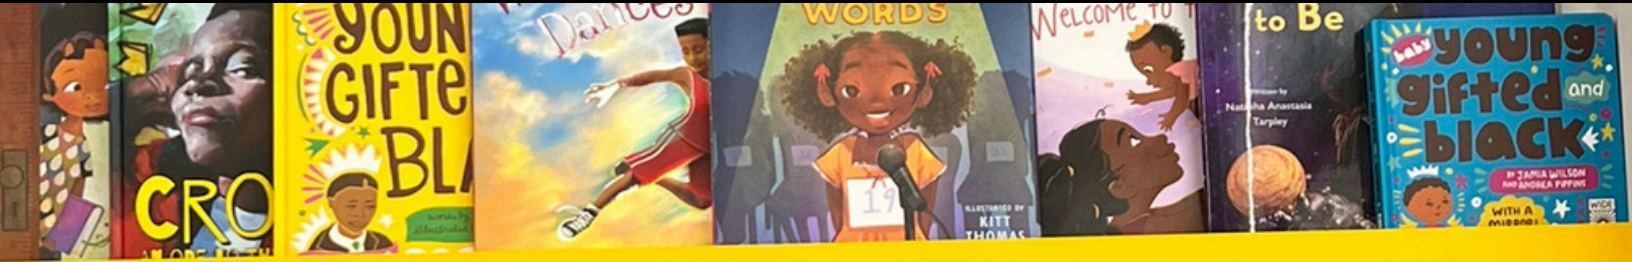

“Cultural representation in children's literature is essential as it helps children feel seen, heard, and valued. It strengthens their identity, fosters self-confidence, and promotes empathy and inclusivity in society”.
-Meredith McKinney, Founder

theblackbookproject.org

The Black Book Project

The Black Project is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that aims to make cultural representation in children's literature a priority, one book at a time!

Did you know that only 13% of children's books published showcase Black characters?

The Black Book Project's goal is to collect 10,000 black books by the end of February 2025 for underserved children in Nashville, and we can do it with your help!

Scan this QR Code to donate books from our Amazon Wishlist!

Scan this QR code to donate!

founder

"Cultural representation in children's literature is essential as it helps children feel seen, heard, and valued. It strengthens their identity, fosters self-confidence, and promotes empathy and inclusivity in society"

-Meredith M. McKinney

theblackbookproject.org

The Black Project is a 501 (c)3 non-profit organization that aims to make cultural representation in children's literature a priority, one book at a time!

Did you know that only 13% of children's books published showcase Black characters?

With your help the Black Book Project can meet the goal of collecting 10,000 books by the end of February 2025 for underserved children in Nashville.

Scan this QR Code to donate from our Amazon Wishlist!

Scan this QR code to donate!

Scan to donate using PayPal
Scan to donate using PayPal

THE BLACK BOOK PROJECT

The Black Project is a 501 (c)3 non-profit organization that aims to make cultural representation in children's literature a priority, one book at a time!

Did you know that only 13% of children's books published showcase Black characters?

The Black Book Project's goal is to collect 10,000 books by the end of February 2025 for underserved children in Nashville.

Scan to donate from our Amazon Wishlist!

Scan this QR code to donate!

Theblackbookproject.org

THE BLACK BOOK PROJECT

The Black Project is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that aims to make cultural representation in children's literature a priority, one book at a time! Did you know only 13% of children's books published showcase Black characters? The Black Book Project's goal is to collect 10,000 books by the end of February 2025 for underserved children in Nashville.

Please help The Black Book Project reach the goal of 10,000 books!

SCAN TO DONATE FROM OUR AMAZON WISH LIST

SCAN THIS QR CODE TO DONATE

SCAN THIS QR TO DONATE
VIA CASH APP

Theblackbookproject.org